

Venngo

One of the major changes coming out of the recent virtual Annual Meeting and Forum was that the Venngo subscription would now be available to all members and children of members could also belong. In addition, once members are able to travel to the U.S. they will be able to access discounts from 300,000 vendors there. Members are encouraged to watch for information on the improved Venngo program coming from the RTOERO Office.